

“Bringing Edinburgh’s Communities Together”

Bookroom Volunteer Assistant

We are thrilled that you are interested in being a volunteer Bookroom Assistant in our second hand book shop for the local community. We hope that you find the information about what you can do to help the service and the people who attend it useful.

How will I make a difference?

The Eric Liddell Centre provides a number of services including a Day Care Service and support for carers. Several charities are based at the Centre and many different organisations rent rooms here. It is a busy place with a real buzz and a variety of different people from young to old not to mention the young families taking their children to classes from Monkey Music to Judo. We want to capitalise on this busy environment by selling books that have been donated by members of the public. The funds we raise from book sales will help fund our core activities essential for the local community.

What will I be doing?

You will be helping customers choose books. During quieter times you will be sorting the books and stocking shelves.

Will I be trained?

An induction will be provided by management support. Fire safety and emergency evacuation will be covered along with the layout of the Eric Liddell Centre and the location of varied activities within the Centre.

Is Bookroom on every day?

The Bookroom is open every day. We just need volunteers to sort books for a couple of hours a day.

What do I do next?

Please complete the “Helping Hand Programme” application form and make “Bookroom” volunteer your first choice, we will then get back to you!
